J. R. TURNER FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

The name of John R. Turner appears in our announcement column as a candidate for the nomination by the Democracy of his precinct, No. 2, for the important office of county commissioner. Mr. Turner is a practical farmer, a life-long Democrat, and a highly esteemed citizen, with some official experience, having served as deputy tax assessor and justice of the peace. He is a native of Tennessee, moved to Arkansas in early manhood, thence to the Chickasaw nation where he has lived for 18 years. He commits himself to the policy of rigid economy in the administration of county affairs in the event of his nomination and election. The News commends Mr. Turner to the voters of that precinct as a gentleman worthy of trust and well qualified to fill the office to which he aspires.

Primary in Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., May 30.—Rhode Island's ten delegates and ten alternates to the Democratic National convention at Baltimore will be selected in a state-wide primary to be held tomorrow. The primary will be the first of its kind held in this state. The names of Champ Clark, Woodrow Wilson and Judson Harmon will appear on the ballots.

$300,000 FOR SCHOOLS FOR STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Washington, May 30.—The Senate committee on Indian affairs yesterday reported the Indian appropriation bill, with numerous changes from the House provision.

The committee's bill includes the amendment offered by Senator Gore for an appropriation of $300,000 for the schools of Eastern Oklahoma, made necessary by reason of the court decision declaring a large part of the Indian lands untaxable.

Other changes made by the senate committee make part of the $75,000 appropriation for the suppression of liquor traffic among the Indians specifically applicable to Oklahoma, reduce from $40,000 to $29,000 Indian hospital for Kiowas, Comanches and Apaches; extending the time of payment on lands sold under the act of June 17, 1910.

The Senate committee strikes out the provision that "no money shall be expended from the tribal funds belonging to the Five Civilized Tribes except for schools, without specific appropriation by congress," and then increases from $150,000 to $174,000 the appropriation for the administration of the affairs of the Five Tribes. The committee would also restore the Indian agencies knocked out by the House; add $5,000 for advertising unallotted lands; authorized 20 per cent commission for collecting tribal revenues; add $5,000 for expenses of appraisers of mineral land surface; authorize allowances to renters for improvements made on surface lands; add $35,000 for improvements in Plat National Park and would authorize suits in courts of claims to determine the equalization of the Creek allotments by attorneys approved by the Department of the Interior at a fee not exceeding 10 per cent.

What Kind of Fruits to Grow.

Guthrie, Okla., May 30.—N. O. Booth, horticulturist, and D. C. Moore, his assistant at the State A. & M. College at Stillwater, are sending over the state a bulletin covering the proper kinds of fruit to grow in this state. The list sent out is based on the actual experience of the growers throughout Oklahoma. Booth recently sent out 1,200 query sheets to growers of experience in this state, asking that all varieties be checked that had been grown with success, as well as those that had been tried with successful results.

WILSON CLAIMS TO BE IN THE LEAD

Washington, May 30.—Gov. Wilson's victory in New Jersey yesterday and the complete sweep he made in Minnesota and Texas gives him in a single day no less than 88 delegates to the Baltimore convention. Gov. Wilson now has behind him, according to calculations of his managers here, a grand total of 353 delegates and is thus in the lead of all his rivals for the Democratic nomination. A statement issued from the Wilson headquarters says:

"With the addition of 88 votes to his convention strength yesterday, Gov. Wilson distanced all his rivals, and it was made certain that he will go to the convention with more votes than any other candidate. Gov. Wilson's convention strength is now represented by 353 delegates. Speaker Champ Clark, who is next in the race, has 276 votes to his credit. It is certain that Gov. Wilson will have the bulk of the North Carolina delegates as the result of the action of the county conventions already held, and none of this strength is accredited to him in the above figures, which minimize rather than magnify his convention vote."

Roosevelt Impression Growing.

The growing impression that Roosevelt will be the Republican nominee whom the Democrats will have to fight for the nomination was reflected in the attacks made on Roosevelt on the floor of the House by Representative Fitzgerald, of New York.

From the deepened gloom enveloping the Taft camp as a result of yesterday's culminating disaster in New Jersey, today still came the sullen and dogged declaration that the President would be renominated at Chicago nevertheless and notwithstanding. Neither Manager McKinley nor the backers of the President in Congress had much hope of carrying New Jersey, but they did believe they would pick up a few delegates in the state, thereby increasing the margin of safety they claim to possess over Roosevelt in the matter of instructed delegates. But they have repeatedly asserted in the last week that it was not necessary to the success of the President at Chicago to gain a single additional delegate. They said Taft had a majority of those already elected and that he would hold them to the end. Hence his nomination was assured whatever the result might be in New Jersey and the other states and districts that had still to choose their delegates to Chicago. The Taft leaders stood pat on these declarations today and the President himself did likewise.

Other changes made by the senate committee make part of the $75,000 appropriation for the suppression of liquor traffic among the Indians specifically applicable to Oklahoma, reduce from $40,000 to $29,000 Indian hospital for Kiowas, Comanches and Apaches; extending the time of payment on lands sold under the act of June 17, 1910.

LARGE CONGREGATION HEARS EVANGELIST

Last evening Rev. L. P. Law, the evangelist, preached a strong and forceful sermon from the text: "Prepare to Meet Thy God." He made a most impressive appeal to his hearers to settle this vital question at once and not neglect to accept a free pardon while it is yet time. At the conclusion of the sermon a number signified their interest by responding to a call for all who desired the prayers of the Christians of the congregation.

The music at this meeting is a feature worthy of high praise. Both Mr. Currie and Mrs. Law are highly talented and they have able support from the local musicians.

SMITH'S

AIKEN WILL NOT AGAIN APPEAR

Oklahoma City, May 30.—For the reason that he is without funds to bring witnesses from other parts of the state, and relying in the fairness of Secretary of State Ben F. Harrison to safeguard the interests of his bill, Oliver Akin, author of the bill to abolish several state institutions, has notified the secretary that he will appear no more at the hearings on the bill. Akin says that he believes implicitly in the fairness of the secretary, and that an honest decision will be given at the end of the hearing.

It will probably be the latter part of the week before the hearing will be closed. Witnesses are being introduced showing that names appearing on different petitions are those of people of whom have been gone from the places where they are listed. It is relied upon by the protestants to show enough of these alleged irregularities to kill the bill.

New Rules for Parole.

For his own protection, and in order to give parties wishing to make protest, Governor Cruce has made a new ruling concerning the application for paroles or pardons. In future, before an application for parole or pardon will be entertained by the governor, it will be necessary to have published in a newspaper in the county where the crime was committed, a notice of intention to apply for a parole or a pardon, for a period of not less than thirty days. Proof of such publication must also be furnished with the application to the governor. In order that no imposition may be perpetrated, by recommendations, petitions or otherwise, and that the public may be duly apprised of the matter, the governor says he finds it necessary to make this rule.

The growing impression that Roosevelt will be the Republican nominee whom the Democrats will have to fight for the nomination was reflected in the attacks made on Roosevelt on the floor of the House by Representative Fitzgerald, of New York.

CRUCE WILL NOT CALL SPECIAL ELECTION

Oklahoma City, May 30.—Governor Cruce Wednesday denied for the present at least application from citizens of Texas and Cache townships in Comanche county to call an election on the proposition of attaching them to Jefferson county.

In order to guarantee a square deal, the governor declined to call an election on the township proposition and set the 4th of June for a hearing on the Cotton county project. If this sufficient showing is made then the governor will call an election on the formation of Cotton county. If this is defeated in the election, then he will entertain the proposition to detach the two townships.

Some men who long for popularity fail utterly because their ideas of making themselves agreeable are altogether wrong and they are unable to learn how to adapt themselves to their surroundings.

An investigator declares "no man can make a million without lying." If that were the only thing standing in the way, the number of millionaires would increase rapidly, says the McAlester News-Capital.

Tom Watson, who ran for the presidency on the populist ticket two or three times, is one of the delegates to the National Democratic convention at Baltimore. Think of Tom Watson in a Democratic convention!

Panhandle Liar says that, while fishing in Beaver creek, near Griggs, in Cimarron county, Mun Doolittle pulled out what he thought was a monster fish, 13 feet long. He found it to be a big cat-fish partly swallowed by a snake.

The account of the Texas Democratic convention is full of names that were somewhat in eclipse a few years ago, and many of the names one has been in the habit of seeing for many years past in the management of state conventions are either conspicuous by their absence or else appear in the list of steam roller victims.

Representative John P. Crawford is making his race for re-nomination on a platform pledging himself to work for the abolishment of some county offices, some state offices, and the abolition of the present township system. At the last Democratic convention in Pontotoc county, this matter was the predominating issue. The people have begun to realize that the only way to curtail expense of government is to abolish some of the jobs. We are glad that Representative Crawford has come out in the beginning of his race for the thing that the people are demanding. And when John Crawford favors a thing the people that he means to get legislation along that line.—Roff Eagle.

Evidently the socialists believe there is hope for the most hardened tool of the capitalist. Although the News was already getting a copy or two of the Appeal to Reason on exchange, some one has paid for a forty weeks' subscription both for the editor and manager. The sender is no doubt fondly hoping that the scales will drop from our eyes and that we will soon announce our conversion. The intentions of the fellow may be good, whoever he is, but the chances are that the half dollar paid for those two subscriptions would have done more good if spent for bread and meat for his family.

Politics in Texas seems to have taken a sudden turn all the way around. In the first place, the republicans split all to pieces and elected contesting delegations to the national convention and in the democratic convention the Wilson men signalized their victory by dealing out a new hand all the way around. Cone Johnson heads the list of delegates at large to the national convention, Col. R. M. Johnson of the Houston Post, who for many years has represented Texas on the national committee, and who raised the dust for Harmon before the late primaries, was shelved. Bailey seems to have been utterly forgotten, and most of his leading followers were relegated to the rear.

MOLLER NEWS.

The farmers are all very busy hoeing cotton this week and say a good rain is needed.

Beecher Townsend returned yesterday from Franks, where he had been visiting relatives.

The Moller public school is being closed two weeks on account of busy times.

Mrs. Ollie Reed is on the puny list this week.

Misses Dora and Allie Gore were the guests of Miss Elsie Rhea Monday. Mrs. T. W. Davis is visiting relatives at Lula this week.

Mrs. Lewis Lillard was the guest of Mrs. Henderson Sunday.

W. O. Pratt made a business trip to Conway Tuesday.

M. D. Meadows and wife were visiting at Tupelo Sunday.

Mrs. Pratt and family were the guests of Mrs. Ed Smith Friday.

Mr. W. M. Gore made a business trip to Ada Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Henderson was the guest of Mrs. W. R. Roberts Tuesday.

Miss Gertie Rhea was the guest of Miss Dona Gore Sunday.

Mrs. George Felton and Mrs. Hattie Brooks were the guests of Mrs. Ed Smith Saturday.

Hurrah for the fisherman! Don't get discouraged. May be you won't have fisherman's luck next time.

Miss Hattie Henderson was the guest of Mrs. W. O. Pratt Tuesday night.

Mr. J. A. Woolly has been making some new improvements on and around his residence this week.

Mrs. Jack Shoffit was the guest of Mrs. Kifer Sunday.

The date of the R. N. of A. ice cream social was given incorrectly in last week's paper. It will be the third Saturday night in June.

There was a large crowd attended the church services Sunday, and all seemed to enjoy the Holiness preacher's sermon very much.

Paul Harbin seemed to look sad Sunday. Wonder why?

D. C. CREDITORS

GIVEN HARD JOLT

Muskogee, Okla., 30.—Creditors of the Oklahoma Central Railway company, which is now operating a line from Lehigh to Chickasha, were dealt a staggering blow by Judge R. E. Campbell in the Circuit Court of the United States yesterday, when he sustained the demurrer of the Western Trust and Savings Bank company to the intervening petition of the Berringer Hardware company, and held that the bondholders had prior rights and they must be protected first.

The decision of the court means that those who put up the money for the building of the road from Blanchard to Chickasha, and also for the operating of the road from Lehigh to Blanchard while the line to Chickasha was being built will not participate in the amount derived from the sale of the road until the bondholders are paid in full.

The original suit in which the receivers were appointed was brought by Ralph W. Aigler and the Western Trust and Savings company against the Oklahoma Central Railway company, in which a foreclosure was asked as the company had defaulted in the payment of interest and was unable to complete the road out of the proceeds of the bond sale. Afterwards an agreement was entered into between the trustees for the bondholders and others, as a result of which the president of the railway company was authorized to proceed with the construction of the road. The work was continued on the presumption that the bondholders were to stand the cost so as to protect their bonds for a road that was not completed or in operation was of no benefit to the first mortgage bondholders. It was claimed that $45,000 was lost in operating the road from Lehigh to Blanchard.

Creditors of the company came in and requested that their claims be given a priority over the bondholders' and that those who furnished the labor and material be protected. Judge Campbell, in sustaining a demurrer to the petition of the intervenors, held that the bondholders held all prior rights and the cause at bar was one in which the intervenors could not secure redress. They be bound by the action of the president of the railway company or anybody claiming to represent them. The fact that $182,000 derived from the sale of the bonds had been paid back to the bondholders in the way of interest and not used in building the road and that $50,000 had been diverted could not help those who furnished material and labor. No one had a prior right over the bondholders.

Politics in Texas seems to have taken a sudden turn all the way around. In the first place, the republicans split all to pieces and elected contesting delegations to the national convention and in the democratic convention the Wilson men signalized their victory by dealing out a new hand all the way around. Cone Johnson heads the list of delegates at large to the national convention, Col. R. M. Johnson of the Houston Post, who for many years has represented Texas on the national committee, and who raised the dust for Harmon before the late primaries, was shelved. Bailey seems to have been utterly forgotten, and most of his leading followers were relegated to the rear.

GERM LADEN DUST CAUSES CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm Kills the Deadly Catarrh Germs—No Stomach Dosing.

Catarrh, which is bad enough in itself, often results in loss of taste, smell and hearing, and leads to serious throat and lung troubles if not promptly checked. The seat of catarrh is usually in the back of the nose, and its natural course is downward, into the throat and thence to the lungs.

Don't take any chances. If you have any symptoms of catarrh—stuffed up feeling in the head, nasty discharge from the nose, sore throat, or dry, hacking cough, get a fifty-cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and begin the treatment at once.

This remedy is not a "burning out" or "drying up" process. It is simply a cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm, taken through the nostrils back into the head and throat where it instantly reaches the seat of the trouble.

That's the only effective way to effectively and permanently cure catarrh.

Catarrh makes you offensive to yourself and friends. Start using Ely's Cream Balm today, and in a short time you will be permanently cured of the nasty, disgusting disease. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., special agents.

DECORATION EVE.

Safe in cool, refreshing showers. Fall the tears that Nature weeps. On the heaps of withered flowers Where the martyred patriot sleeps.

Dreamless his unbroken slumber, Recks he not that foeman tread Side by side with living comrades Near his green and lowly bed.

Fell he while above him streaming Were the white and crimson bars And St. Andrew's cross was gleaming 'Mid the galaxy of stars.

Meet it is that comrades gather Yearly at each sacred shrine, Bringing them the floral offering— For them laurel wreaths entwine. (Miss) MOLLIE P. COPE. Ada, Okla., May, 1912.

PROPHET IS 15 YEARS OLD

Hindu Regarded by European Theosophists as Precursor of the Master."

Paris.—Theosophists of Europe have their thoughts directed toward Paris, for at Paris has arrived a new Hindu prophet who is regarded by many Theosophists as the precursor of the ultimate Master who is to give to the world its long-experienced moral transformation. He is a mere boy, only 15 years of age, and he comes from Adyar, India. At fourteen he wrote a book called "At the Fest of the Master," which has been translated into many languages, and which is said by Theosophists to be inspired by a high consciousness of human needs. To them the prophet, who is called both Krishnamurti and Alcyone, confirms by his presence the declarations of Mrs. Annie Besant in her address at the Sorbonne last year that a profound change was coming in the life of humanity and that it was to enter upon a new phase to be signalized by the coming of the Master, who was to establish a new religion.

The prophet presided at a meeting of Theosophists. He plans to pass about six months at the University of Oxford, to gain a knowledge of western culture, for he believes that in the new era there will come a union of western culture and of eastern wisdom. He predicts for the future the formation of a new continent in the Pacific ocean like the one called Atlantis, which, according to classical tradition, once existed in the Atlantic ocean. The prophet and his friends contend that the Bogoloff Islands, whose coming in the North Pacific was accompanied by seismic disturbances, are the nucleus of the new continent he has in mind. This physical earth change, he believes, will signalize a revolution in religion.

Vienna.—One of the prettiest, most popular comedienne of the variety stage, Heidi Herdina, twenty-six years old, blew out her brains with a revolver in her elegantly furnished apartments in the Czerningasse a few days ago because of financial losses in a vaudeville enterprise.

A few hours before she committed suicide she met friends in a cafe and was as gay and entertaining as usual. At midnight she went home, wrote some letters and rang for her child's nurse, requesting that the child be brought without waking it. Repeatedly she kissed the sleeping child, softly, then put around its neck a chain to which was attached the key of her safe.

After this she went to bed and the maid noticed that she took with her a small mirror. When found dead next morning the lamp in her room was burning, the mirror and a revolver had fallen from her hands. She had pressed the weapon to her right temple.

When only sixteen her talents were discovered in Berlin. She was paid the highest salaries ever earned by a soubrette in Germany. While performing there a wealthy Turk fell in love with her and took her to Egypt. Two years ago she returned to Berlin with $125,000 which her wealthy admirer had given her. Four months ago she came to Vienna. Here she was not satisfied with being a queen of the variety stage. She determined to own a vaudeville theater, and in the Monopolie Variety lost half her fortune, her partner, who managed the Tabarin theater, disappearing with the rest of her money. This caused her to kill herself.

IN JAIL TO SEE HANGING

Two Men Have Themselves Arrested, But the Sheriff Foils Their Plans.

Chambersburg, Pa.—In order that they might witness the hanging of William Reed, which will take place in the Franklin county jail here, Denis Crilley of Roadsides and John Dunn of Hagerstown, Md., got themselves arrested for drunkenness, refused to pay fines, and were committed to prison.

"But after we landed in jail," said Crilley, "we found that the prisoners couldn't see the execution. We didn't give up and got after the sheriff. He told us there was no use to talk, as he wouldn't permit us to witness the hanging. We begged hard, but it was no good. That settled it for me. I sent for father and he came and paid fines and costs for both of us, and we were released."

Three pictures will constitute the program at the Majestic this evening. Two of these are stirring dramas and the other a first-class comedy. The Majestic shows are always first-class. Nothing shoddy about any of them.

About the busiest place the reporter has seen lately is the factory of the Purity Ice Cream Co. Manager McGuyre and his force were working until their tongues hung out and seemed even then unable to keep up with the rush of orders. The company expects to double its cream making capacity in order to meet the demands of the trade. Another thing worthy of mention is the excellent sanitary condition of the place.

Tulsa, Okla., May 28.—Accompanied by the greatest electrical display ever seen in this section of the country a tornado swept through the rich Hominy valley and the town of Skiatook, eighteen miles northwest of here, late last night, leaving in its wake eight known dead and at least a score or more injured, several of whom will probably die.

A stretch of country 25 miles long and 300 yards wide were completely devastated by the twister. All communication with the outside world was cut off and details of the disaster did not reach here until late today. Heavy dark clouds hung over the hills west of Skiatook during the early part of the evening. Suddenly a cloud was seen to dip towards the earth and in a few seconds the awe-inspiring tornado was sweeping down the valley at terrific speed.

Residents of Skiatook immediately took to storm cellars, three of them housing 75 people. Many lives were saved by this presence of mind.

Sweeping down the valley, the storm swept everything clean. Farm houses disappeared as if by magic. Heavily timbered places were swept clean. Twenty houses in the south part of Skiatook were completely demolished. In the of fields every derrick was leveled, causing a damage estimated at $50,000.

ROMANCE OF WAR

Death Recalls an Incident That Occurred in 1863.

Mrs. Alexander Klaucke, Native of Carroll County, Dies in Germany Long After Marrying a Soldier WhoAppealed to Her for a Drink.

Westminster, Md.—Information has just been received in this city of the death of Mrs. Alexander A. C. Klaucke, a native of this county, at her home in Weisbaden, Germany, an event which calls to the minds of some of the elderly residents of the county an interesting romance in connection with her marriage to Mr. Klaucke. Mrs. Klaucke's maiden name was Mary Freeze, and she was related to some of the leading people of this county.

In the summer of 1863 she was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Joshua Smith, mother of the late Judge John E. Smith, on East Main street, this city, when the Sixth corps of the United States army passed through here on its way to Gettysburg. Two officers of the corps, one of whom was Mr. Klaucke, halted at the Smith residence and asked for water to quench their thirst, and it was Miss Freeze who handed a glass of water to the man who afterward became her husband. As it was the dinner hour, Mrs. Smith hospitably invited the officers to dine with her family, an invitation which was accepted with alacrity, especially by Mr. Klaucke, who had promptly fallen in love with the pretty maiden from whose hand he had received the water. The sequel proved that the admiration of the officer was reciprocated, and ere he resumed his march he had won Miss Freeze. Though it was a case of love at first sight, the lovers were faithful, and soon after the close of the Civil war they were married in Ascension Episcopal church, this city, by Rev. Dr. James W. Reese.

Mr. Klaucke was for a time a government official in one of the departments at Washington, but soon after his marriage resigned and with his American bride sailed for his home in Germany. It had then transpired that he was a gentleman of wealth and noble family, one of his near relatives having married a German princess. He lived but a few years and died childless.

Devoted to her husband's memory, Mrs. Klaucke made her permanent home in Weisbaden, where she was near his grave. She occasionally visited her relatives here and always kept herself well posted on local affairs in this county by correspondence and by subscribing for a county newspaper.

AT A TYROLESE CHILD FAIR

Tourists at Friedrichshafen See 125 Boys and 30 Girls Between Ages of 11 and 16 on Sale.

Friedrichshafen—Early arrivals here this spring are congratulating themselves that they came in time to see the annual market of Tyrolese children—125 boys and 30 girls, between the ages of eleven and sixteen, put on

They arrived early on Monday from across Lake Constance in a special steamer, under the care of a Roman Catholic priest, and stood huddled together in front of the Golden Wheel Inn waiting to be sold to the highest bidder for the season's farm work. Purchasers were not lacking, for 600 peasant farmers from Baden, Wurttemberg and Bavaria had come to get child-slaves to work on their farms, and these behaved exactly as at the cattle market, scrutinizing the boys and girls, sometimes feeling their biceps, and then making an offer to the priceman.

Owing to the demand this year being so much greater than the supply the prices ruled high, $62.50 being given for a sturdy lad of sixteen, big enough to wield the hay fork or a scythe effectively, while $50 was given for one of the older girls, who looked as if she could do a long day's weeding in the sun. On the other hand, $10.50 was considered enough for little, underfed mites of eleven, who ought to have been at school, and who, it is to be hoped, will be used for nothing more severe than watching flocks of geese and driving cattle out and home at milking time.

The money, of course, goes to

MATHEWSON'S THREE SHUT-OUTS IN A WORLD'S SERIES

CHRISTY MATHEWSON'S abiding fame came in 1905 when he performed a twirling feat that has never been equaled in a crucial series. Pitchers glory in no-hit performances. They take pride in leading their rivals in stellar feats in a league season. One player only, however, has enjoyed the exhilaration of passing through three games of a world's championship without being scored on. That player is Christy Mathewson of the New York Giants.

With "Matty" pitching for a record in baseball, the Athletics had little chance to shine in that championship.

Among the new plays which Cohan & Harris intend to produce this year are "Broadway Jones," a comedy by Mr. Cohan; "The Other Man," a drama by E. V. Presbrey; "Qued," with Brandon Tynan in the title role; "Room 44," a farce by Frances Nordstrom; "The Seven Little Widows," by Rida Johnson Young; "The Kleptomaniacs," a farce by Carlyle Moore; "The Polish Wedding," a musical farce from the German, and "The Romantic Wife," adapted by Clare Kummer.

sent the ball on a line to the outfield for two down, but that did not lessen the awful suspense under which Matty and his friends labored.

Chief Bender came up menacingly to spoil all the fond hopes of the home rooters. The big Chippewa was at bat to drive in the tying run even if it spoiled a wonderful pitching feat never before equaled. He sized up his famed opponent and landed on a fast one. It sailed down over third and Powers, thinking it good for a safe hit, dashed madly for home. Arthur Devlin sped toward the sphere, intercepted it, and tagged Powers racing to third.

New York fandom cheered the play to the echo for it had saved Mathewson a world's record. He was invincible thereafter. Not a player reached third after that play and not a single wearer of the Athletic colors saw the sight of the home plate for a run in the three games Matty pitched.

That final battle of 1905 won a world's diadem for Manager McGraw. And it crowned Mathewson with a jewel decked garland that has sparkled more brightly as time has enhanced the brilliance of his wonderful exploit.

"WAHOO SAM" CRAWFORD, THE CLEAN-UP MAN

SAM CRAWFORD, follow-up batter of Ty Cobb on the Detroit Tigers and for a decade one of the heavy hitters in baseball, was the nemesis of Fielder Jones in his ambition to lead the Chicago White Sox to a second world pennant.

It was the slugging of Crawford, more than any other influence, that baffled the brains, strategy and intuition of the crafty pilot of the "hitless wonders." It was the crash of Crawford's trusty bat following the usual singles of the trio preceding him in the Tiger batting order that sent dismay to the hearts of opposing fandom and brought the first pennant in the American league to the City of the Straits.

The battle of 1907 in the American league was one long to be remembered. Four teams were in the race for the flag up to within a month or so of the season's close. Three teams, the Philadelphia Athletics, Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox, the world's champions, figured in a brilliant dash for the goal that aroused fandom to a high state of enthusiasm.

The White Sox were leading as late as August 25. Detroit and Philadelphia were only a few points behind. Jennings led his men into Chicago early in September and as the Tigers and White Sox lined up for the first game on September 3, Chicago fans were strong in the hope that their heroes would win every game and remain in the race for the pennant. They saw another world's pennant race ahead between the Sox and Cubs. With Frank Smith pitching for the White Sox and Ed Killian doing slab-duty for the Tigers, with honors well divided and with the score favoring the visitors 1 to 0, the vast throng was hushed into silence as the Detroit batting artillery appeared in the fifth inning.

O'Leary led off with a single. Killian sacrificed. Jones walked, Coughlin scored a safety and O'Leary came home.

Two men were on bases when Sam Crawford stalked to the plate. The suspense was fearful. So many times had Crawford cleaned up on the White Sox that the fans feared for the result. It might have been good baseball to have passed the mighty swatman, but Frank Smith refused to see it that way. The White Sox pitcher was after a put-out and "Wahoo Sam" had his eye glued on the fences.

Crawford as usual swung at everything that came near the plate. He picked out a fast one, waist high, leaned on the ball with all his might and it sailed out far over Eddie Hahn's head in deep right. Jones and Coughlin came home and White Sox hopes sank to zero.

That smash of wood and leather had won another game for Detroit, practically put the White Sox out of the race for another world's flag and blazoned "Wahoo Sam" as the champion clean-up hitter of the decade in big baseball orbit.

The KING of BLOOD PURIFIERS

As the Lion is Monarch of the Forest, so S. S. S. is King of Blood Purifiers and Master over all Blood diseases.

Pure, rich blood and a free circulation is the surest prevention against the diseases and disorders which are constantly attacking our physical systems. Healthy blood stimulates and enables them to filter out of the system everything that is not necessary or beneficial to the growth and development of the body. Thus we are apt to remain healthy unless there is a weakening of the vital fluid or an impure infection of the circulation.

Imperfect blood takes various forms in its outward manifestation. A weak, watery circulation denotes anaemia with its attendant evils of pale, waxy complexions, malarial conditions, or perhaps some more definitely marked disorder is shown. Frequently the blood becomes infected with acrid humors, and Eczema, Tetter, Acne, or some other skin affection makes its appearance, while an excess of uric acid in the circulation produces Rheumatism with its pains and aches. Old Sores and Ulcers are likewise dependent on bad blood, these places being kept open and in a state of irritation by the drainage of pollution which disordered blood constantly discharges into them.

Another common indication of weak, impure blood is the loss of appetite, tired, worn out feeling and a general run-down condition of the system. This is an ailment very prevalent in the Spring and most persons so afflicted realize the necessity of overcoming the trouble by the use of a tonic.

We recommend to all in need of a blood purifier or tonic, the use of S. S. S., a medicine which has proven itself the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes down into the circulation and removes all impurities, humors and poisons and makes the blood pure and health-sustaining. It purifies and strengthens weak deteriorated blood, supplies it with the healthful properties it needs and lays the foundation for good health. As a tonic S. S. S. has no equal and those who are beginning to feel the need of such a medicine to fortify themselves against the unpleasant conditions which come with Spring and early Summer, should commence its use at once. S. S. S., the King of Blood Purifiers, is a genuine blood cleanser, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks; it does not contain a particle of mineral in any form. You could do better than begin the use of S. S. S. if from any cause your blood is weak or impure. S. S. S. cures all troubles due to a deranged circulation, and you will find it the most satisfactory tonic you ever used. Write for book on the blood and any medical advice. No charge for either.
